

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN: MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 20, 1882.

AUCTION SALES.

Thomas Dowling,
AUCTIONEER
SPECIAL SALE.

A GRAND COLLECTION
OF

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE AT AUCTION.

On WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 21, 1882, commencing at 10 o'clock, within my auction rooms, I shall sell one of the finest collections of parlor furniture ever offered at auction in this city, which will be sold without reserve, comprising in part:

One large three-piece parlor suite, walnut frames, covered with crimson satin damask, with two chairs in blue silk.

One six-piece parlor suite, gilted frames, covered with crimson velvet and mahogany plinth.

One large four-piece parlor suite, covered with crimson mohair plush.

One large four-piece parlor suite, frames in embois silk plush, with two peacock blue silk plush chairs.

Five walnut center tables, with piano top.

One large oval parlor chair.

One large oval sofa.

One large oval sofa, leather.

One large oval sofa, leather.